A Real Charles Chaplin Makes Mirth at Palace

Impersonator with Clever Company Causes Audiences to Howl with Glee.

The United Musical Comedy Company which opened a week's engagement at the Palace yesterday in "Keystone Charlie's Flirtations," scored a big hit with patrons. The work of Charles La Ford as Chaplin and Jack Quinn as Mike Casey is the hit of the show, and the audiences vote them the best impersonators ever seen here. Mr. La Ford was the original understudy for the real Charles Chaplin and is considered one of the best impersonators of Chaplin on the stage today. The rest of the principals also put over their parts in good style. The chorus also deserves mention for its work.

This clever company will remain here all week, and will change its program Wednesday and Friday.

Among the recent deaths reported are those of Ernest Lacy, who wrote "Chatterton" for Julia Marlowe and "The Ragged Earl" for Andrew MacK, and Charles H. Hopper, who created "Chimney Fadden" on the stage.

The Odeon has a splendid little program of vaudeville on for the first three days of this week. The first number on the bill is Dubois and Miller in a nut comedy act, which is very pleasing and goes over good. May Foster and Company in a novelty wire act have a clever offering which alone is worth the price of admission.

Motion pictures are also shown.

The attraction today at the Robinson Grand is of more than ordinary interest, Edmund Breesse in Robert

FRANK PRICE OF WEST POPLAR ST. WORKS EVERY DAY

BEFORE TAKING NERV-WORTH WAS ON SICK LIST HALF THE TIME.

In a signed statement made to the Burke Drug Store, Mr. Frank Price, of 113 West Poplar street, city, gave the following remarkable particulars of how Nerv-Worth brought him up from the depths of ill health:

"I had suffered from stomach trouble for ten years, which was pronounced appendicitis by physicians and advised an operation. I could not work more than half the time, and when I did work the pains in my stomach would be so bad that I would go staggering around like a drunken man."

"I could not get more than four or five hours sleep. I had doctored so much that I had about given up hope of ever getting well. When a friend asked me why I did not try Nerv-Worth."

"So I have taken about six bottles and it surely has helped me a great sight. I can sleep better AND CAN WORK EVERY DAY. I fully recommend Nerv-Worth to all people who suffer from stomach trouble."

"FRANK PRICE."

DAUBERT AND DOYLE FIGHT FOR LEAD IN BATTING AS THEY DID LAST SEASON

Jake Daubert (left) and Larry Doyle.

Jake Daubert and Larry Doyle fought for the National league batting honors last season and Doyle beat the Brooklyn boy by a neat margin. This season Daubert is determined to get a good lead and stay there and at the present writing he has the lead. But he won't finish at the top without a fight with Doyle and quite a few others.

Bowel Complaints in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventative and cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.
